Duty to Accommodate (Pan Prairies – Virtual)

Duty to Accommodate is a tri-partite system, which involves the worker, the union and the employer, with a focus on the duty of employers to make sure that their workplaces are inclusive and allow all workers to participate fully. This course will frame the current process and explore how the Duty to Accommodate has recently evolved. The definition and understanding of accommodation needs is constantly evolving. The process still places the onus on the employee to initiate the request – we will discuss how we change the employer's approach to accommodation, and how we can shift this process to one that is ingrained in the workplace culture, as opposed a system where we create exceptions to workplace expectations.

Are Human Rights Still Relevant in 2026? (Pan Prairies – Virtual)

“Human rights is a force to reckon with, not because it serves the interests of the powerful, but because it has captured the imagination of the powerless,”

Half the world lives under the nominal protection of human rights – the other half does not. There are many egregious examples of peoples living in bare existence and yet all 193 nations have signed the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights.

What do we need to do to protect our access to Human Rights and ensure Human Rights are respected for all. What does it mean to expand our understanding of human rights?
