6. Financial Reports

Dani provided the report via email which Angie reviewed during the meeting. $355.18 is our current balance.

Brea mentioned that the bank statements should be reconciled each month regardless of whether money has come into the account or not.

It is noted that we are in good standing.

Brea Baresinkoff makes a motion to postpone the financials until the Treasurer is present, with instructions to the Treasurer to reconcile the bank account every month. Erin McKim seconds.

All in favour. Carried

We will leave the Budget review until Dani is present as well.

7. Living Library 2026:

Angie has sent out many emails to various groups and people and there has been 1 response from the Regina Sexual Assault Centre that they are able to present. Angie to follow up with a couple other people she has sent out invitations to. Angie mentioned that Dress for Success would like to invite us to their EmpowerHer Conference on Sept 24, however due to the short turnaround time, this may be something we can look at participating in next year.

It was agreed that due to the lack of responses, we will postpone the Living Library until May 1, 2027 to allow for us to line up presenters. May 1 will also allow for alignment with May 5 Red Dress day to honour Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-Spirit People and recognize May Day to honour labour history and rights.

8. Roundtable:

Brea provided an update on Child Care Now SK – CUPE is active with Child Care Now SK. As of July 1 the SK Party made cuts to the child care program. There are public townhalls coming up across SK to learn more about what the cuts mean, focusing on the fact that the Government agreed to $10 a day but they aren't helping with the funding so they can't retain staff and have adequate meals.

Town Halls will be held as follows:

MOOSE JAW WHEN: Wednesday, September 16 7 - 8 p.m. WHERE: Timothy Eaton Gardens/Seniors Centre Craft room 510 Main Street North	REGINA WHEN: Monday, September 28 7 - 8 p.m. WHERE: Regina Humane Society Classroom 2 4900 Parliament Avenue
YORKTON WHEN: Thursday, October 1 7 - 8 p.m. WHERE: St. Andrew's United Church Upper Hall 29 Smith Street East	PRINCE ALBERT WHEN: Thursday, October 8 7 - 8 p.m. WHERE: Prince Albert Public Library Meeting room 5 125 12 Street East

The are also planning a Day of Action – Oct 27 @ 10:00 AM
