WORKERS ENGAGING IN DEMOCRACY
(Pan-Prairies Virtual)

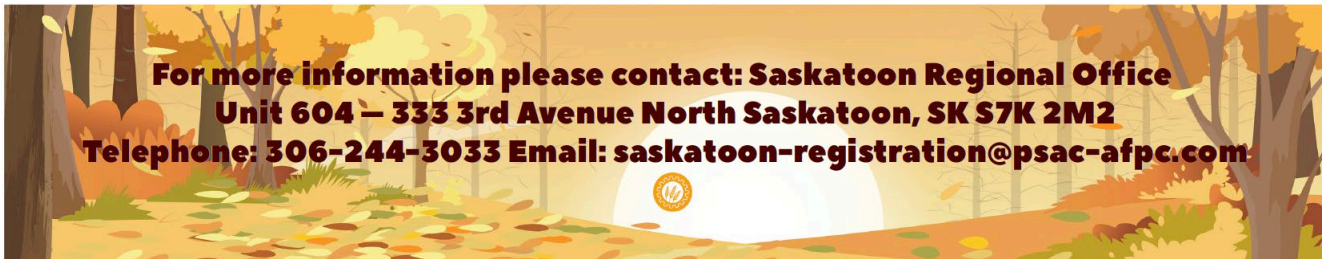

Democracy Happens when Workers Have a Voice. When laws are drafted, when policies are enacted, when political decisions are made; are workers needs and perspectives respected? After all paid vacations, strike protections, pay equity did not happen without workers' voices. This course will look at historical, political, and union perspectives that will leave you with a better understanding of the strength Workers have when they engage in Democracy.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE at Work: PSAC Training for Representatives in Northern Saskatchewan (DVW)
(2.5 Days)
(In-Person, Saskatoon)

PREREQUISITES:
Talking Union Basics (TUB)

Date: Friday, October 23 to Sunday, October 25, 2026
Time: Friday 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM
Saturday & Sunday 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

In December 2014, the Canadian Labour Congress (CLC) released the results of a survey that was developed in collaboration with the Centre for Research and Education on Violence against Women and Children, of Western University in Ontario (CREVAWC), on the impact of domestic violence on the lives of workers. The results show that more than 1/3 of workers experience (or have experienced) domestic violence and for over half of those, domestic violence follows them to work. More than 80% of those experiencing domestic violence said that it impacts their work performance and/or ability to get to work. Eliminating and advocating to end violence against women has been a longstanding priority for PSAC members. Several resolutions on this issue have been adopted throughout the years. At the 2015 PSAC National Triennial Convention, members adopted a resolution to develop a domestic violence education training program. This course is a result of the action of members to bring this issue forward as a workplace and union issue.

If you are willing to take on advocacy and referral for members in the workplace who are experiencing domestic violence, we invite you to apply for this course. Participants will receive information and training on how to deliver short awareness presentations to other members on the topic of domestic violence in the workplace. There will be support worker(s) available throughout the course.

By the end of this workshop participants will be able to:

- explain why domestic violence is a workplace issue and what the union can do to support members who experience domestic violence.

- identify the role and responsibilities of the parties with regards to supporting someone in the workplace who experiences domestic violence.

- recognize the signs, in the workplace, that someone might be experiencing domestic violence.

- support and refer members who experience domestic violence.
- deliver a short awareness presentation to members, on domestic violence in the workplace.

ARE HUMAN RIGHTS STILL RELEVANT IN 2026?
(Pan-Prairies Virtual)

"Human rights is a force to reckon with, not because it serves the interests of the powerful, but because it has captured the imagination of the powerless."
Half the world lives under the nominal protection of human rights – the other half does not. There are many egregious examples of peoples living in bare existence and yet all 193 nations have signed the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights.
What do we need to do to protect our access to Human Rights and ensure Human Rights are respected for all. What does it mean to expand our understanding of human rights?
